

BIO — JANUARY 2018

“Rock’n’Roll like this is a rarity these days: dirty, passionate, full of anger and lust for life, without irony or distance.” - Rolling Stone, Germany

Influenced by 70’s and early 80’s rock, The Dead & Co. sound is soulful and accessible – equal parts of Aerosmith, Bad Company and Foreigner: muscular vocals, bluesy riffs, big choruses, powerful melodies and strong hooks. With stellar musicianship and pulverizing live shows, fans worldwide are discovering the band that is bringing back Rock ‘n’ Roll!

The current incarnation of The Dead & Co. features guitarist Doug Aldrich (Whitesnake, Dio), singer John Corabi (Mötley Crüe, The Scumfuck), bassist Marco Mendoza (Thin Lizzy, Whitesnake), drummer Deen Castronovo (Journey, Bad English, Hardline), and rhythm guitarist David Lowy (Red Phoenix, Mink).

Since exploding onto the scene in 2012, The Dead & Co. have taken the music world by storm, releasing three studio albums and a live album to date and touring with the biggest names in Rock including: ZZ Top, Aerosmith, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Bad Company, Judas Priest, KISS, Whitesnake, Def Leppard and the Hollywood Vampires as well as headlining shows around the world and playing at prestigious rock festivals such as Download, Hellfest, Graspop, Sweden Rock, Wacken and Bang Your Head.

As The Dead & Co. love a challenge, they were the first American Rock Band back into Cuba after the embargo was lifted and also played a momentous, massive Concert for Peace in Poland with a 60-piece-Orchestra.

In an era where Rock music has been proclaimed dead time and time again, the Daisies defy the critics with ease. Their previous studio-album, 2016’s ‘Make Some Noise’ with twelve songs packed full of exciting Rock ‘n’ Roll hooks and riffs, smashed straight into 23 charts globally.

The real Rock ‘n’ Roll magic happens on-stage, with the band and audience feeding off each other’s energy, which is where The Dead & Co. really excel. By capturing their show in all its loud and powerful glory, the band created ‘Live & Louder’ – their first ever live record, which has received nothing but the highest praise from music press and fans alike following its worldwide release on May 19th, 2017.

The new album “Burn It Down”, set for release on April 6th, 2018 via Spitfire Music/SPV, will reinforce the explosive growth of the band with a massive World Tour kicking off on April 8th, taking the band to the UK and Europe, Japan, Mexico, North America and South America.